COUNTRY LIFE NOW ATTRACTS SOCIETY

Brilliant Gatherings at Belmont Park and Piping Rock for the Races—Prospect of a Noble Season at Southampton

COUNTRY life is now claiming society and there could be nothing more delightful than the gatherings of last week at Belmont Park and Piping Rock for the races. At the same time there was a decided contrast in the two meets. At the club, with its wealth of rural surroundings which take on the appearance of a vast country estate, it seemed more like a private gathering than one to which the public was welcomed. There was no grand stand and in its place was a series of open boxes, which now and then were deserted in favor of the paddock or the lawn. Many watched the races from the clubhouse terrace with great comfort and the view of the course from that standpoint was even more satisfactory than from the lawn or boxes.

Miss Lorraine Purdy will be married to Ludwig Bieringer of Baden, Baden, at the country home of her parents near Croton-on-Hudson. With no regard for superstition Miss Helen Coster and Sumner Gerard will be married on Friday, which will be the 13th day of the month, the wedding to take place in the chantry of Grace Church. There remain but few weddings of note after this week, at least in the city.

Americans in London last week were much in evidence at several parties of note and especially at the Versailles fete, which was the great semi-public payment of the season. Lord and Lady Leith of Fyvie, who will be remembered here as Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Forbes Leith, gave a dinner and dance for their granddaughter, Miss Burn, whose mother, the Hon. Mrs. Rosden Burn, was Miss Ethel Forbes Leith. There were many Americans at this party, as was the case at one given later in the week by Lady Deerhurst for her daughter, the Hon.

Relief shoe FOR WOMEN

If your feet are sore or sensitive, if you cannot walk with comfort, you may depend on it that your shoes are not the proper kind. Relief shoes prevent and cure foot trouble. Anatomically they are correct, they furnish restful support for the muscles, they have not the ugly break lines so common in shoes of this kind; they have a custom made appearance. Sold only by the makers.

who had failed to secure tables in advance that had to take luncheon indoors, which was not at all a hardship, with the charming surroundings of the dining room, where all the tables had been especially decorated by Mrs. Paul D. Cravath with flowers from her country place, Veraton, in Long Valley.

All the polo men were in evidence, including those of the American and British teams, and if they have the same luck this week as last, as far as the weather is concerned, then the international contest can be finished in good shape and time. The change that time brings about was shown particularly in the presence of hundreds of automobiles and the one and coach to bear out the old traditions of the racing course.

Life on Long Island, especially in the neighborhood of Meadow Brook, will be at its height this week on account of the polo contest, and all the country houses within a radius of 25 miles from the field will be filled. Most of the people who have places there will remain until the end of this month, after which the season resorts will claim them.

There will be but few weddings this week and most of them will be celebrated in country places. Miss Catherine Lawrence will be married to Donald McKesson at Grace Church to-morrow and on Wednesday Miss Edna Marston will be married to Oscar M. Burke in St. Bartholomew's Church. On that day Miss Helen Converse Clark, daughter of Prof. Clark of Columbia, will be married to Prof. Henry C. Lancaster of Amherst College in the Manhattan Congregational Church, while in London, Miss Margaret Elliott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Elliott, formerly of this city, will be married to Capt. Cyril Daubeney in St. Paul's Church, Wilton Place.

One of the attractive country weddings will be that of Miss Edwina Whitehouse to Gregory S. Van S. McLoughlin of this city in Rye on Thursday and on that day

Helena Coventry, Lady Deerhurst, was Miss Virginia Bonyne, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bonyne of San Francisco, who are known to the prominent Americans going yearly to London for the season.

Information comes from London that Miss Mary Crocker Alexander, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Alexander of this city, will be presented at court on Tuesday night by Ambassador Page. Miss Alexander went to England a fortnight ago with her aunt, Mrs. John J. McCook, joining there her mother and sisters. Miss Alexander will be introduced to society in New York next winter.

An engagement announced recently of interest to society here and in Philadelphia was that of Miss Hilma Holloway, daughter of the late John Holloway of Philadelphia, to Henry Brevoort, Renwick of Flushing, L. I., and this city.

Miss Holloway is a sister of Sidney J. Holloway, who is well known as a whip and gentleman rider. She is an enthusiastic follower of horses and has participated in exhibitions in the ring here and in Philadelphia.

Mr. Renwick has figured with success at several horse shows and in numerous amateur riding events. He is a son of James A. Renwick of Fox Oaks, Flushing, L. I. No date has been set for the wedding.

An engagement announced here of interest to society in Boston and Brooklyn was that of Miss Margaret Rankin, only daughter of the Rev. Isaac Ogden Rankin and Mrs. Rankin of Brooklyn, Mass., to James M. Barker of Boston.

It was made known at the wedding of Miss Harriet Barrows and Hugh Rankin, a brother of Miss Rankin, which was celebrated here on May 31.

Miss Rankin was graduated from Smith College in 1908 and her fiancé was graduated from the Massachusetts Institute of ment of their daughter, Miss Helen Elizabeth Hull, to Edwin Seymour Belcher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin W. Belcher of Brooklyn. Miss Hull is a sister of Mrs. Dudley Peabody of Brooklyn.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. McCutcheon of Washington, Conn., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Dorothy Holt McCutcheon, to George Cornelius Reed of Grandy of Norfolk, Va., and Plainfield, N. J. The wedding will take place in September.

The engagement has been announced of Miss Abbe Frances Ferrin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Ferrin, to Charles R. Skinner, Jr., of this city, son of former State Superintendent of Education Charles R. Skinner. No date has been set for the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sutphin of Queens borough have announced the engagements of their two daughters, the Misses Caroline and Stella Sutphin. Miss Caroline Sutphin will wed William Le Roy Wycoff, son of William F. Wycoff. Miss Stella Sutphin's fiancé is Cecil Hurlbut Rawson, son of Mrs. Clara A. Rawson of Charlottetown, Va.

One of the interesting weddings of this week will be that of Miss Edna Marston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin S. Marston, to Oscar Meech Burke of this city in St. Bartholomew's Church on Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. Sidney Usher, assistant rector of the church, and will be followed by a reception at the home of the bride's parents, 22 East Fifty-sixth street.

The bride has chosen her sister-in-law, Mrs. Russell Marston, as her matron of honor, and the maid of honor will be Miss Frank Lichtenstein. The other attendants chosen are the Misses Martha Burke,
